

Airport Advisory Board Seeks Applicants

February 1, 2022 -- The Santa Fe Regional Airport Advisory Board (AAB) is a seven-member citizen board that informs and makes recommendations to the Governing Body of the City of Santa Fe on the development of the airport for short- and long-term planning goals as they relate to the airport master plan.

The Board is currently seeking letters of interest from members of the public who are interested in filling 3 at-large vacancies on the board. To apply, applicants should have knowledge and interest in the airport and should be a citizen of the City of Santa Fe or the County of Santa Fe who reside within 10 miles of the city limits.

The AAB meets at 4 p.m. on the second Thursday of every month.

Interested applicants may submit a letter of interest and a resume to:
