In this week's episode of Inside New Mexico, Steve talks about expected rolling blackouts in the state, how the Governor's green energy plans will be disastrous for New Mexico, dark money in the 2020 presidential race, how some mainstream media are criticizing President Biden and a look at Biden and the Supreme Court. Steve also discusses Nancy Pelosi's intention to run for reelection, migrants at the southern border dispersing across the nation, courts invalidating voting rules and the RNC opening up community centers.

And host Derek Underhill interviews NM House Republican Leader Jim Townsend about key issues in the current legislative session. In particular, Jim discusses his plan for school choice in New Mexico.
