

CITY OF SANTA FE

Join Us for the City of Santa Fe 2024 COVID-19 Memorial Day

12 to 1 p.m. on Monday, March 4, on the Santa Fe Plaza

The City of Santa Fe warmly invites all community members to attend the 2024 COVID-19 Memorial Day from 12 to 1 p.m. on Monday, March 4, 2024, on the Santa Fe Plaza.

In February 2021, the Governing Body unanimously adopted a resolution designating the first Monday in March as COVID-19 Memorial Day. This event is held to remember all who have passed away, fallen ill, or who continue to suffer from the impact of COVID-19, as well as to honor essential workers.

Citywide, Santa Feans are urged to participate in the memorial by observing a moment of silence at 12 p.m., and by adding their voices or noise to a moment of appreciation for essential workers at 12:01 p.m. (ringing bells at houses of worship, honking car horns, rounds of applause, etc.)

2024 COVID-19 Memorial Day

Monday, March 4, 2024 | 12PM - 1PM

The City of Santa Fe warmly invites all community members to attend the 2024 COVID-19 Memorial Day at on the Santa Fe Plaza.

In February 2021, the Governing Body unanimously adopted a resolution designating the first Monday in March as COVID-19 Memorial Day. This event is held to remember all who have passed away, fallen ill, or who continue to suffer from the impact of COVID-19, as well as honor essential workers.

Citywide, Santa Feans are urged to participate in the memorial by observing the moment of silence at 12:00 p.m., and by adding their voices or noise to a moment of appreciation for essential workers at 12:01 p.m. (ringing bells at houses of worship, honking car horns, rounds of applause, etc.).

