In this week's episode of Inside New Mexico, Steve talks about conservatism, the importance of conservative values, what Democrats really stand for, the Canadian truckers convoy, the government's COVID mandates, the drunken driving arrest of NM Rep. Georgene Louis, the report that Hillary Clinton's presidential campaign spied on Donald Trump, Gov. Lujan Grisham's failure to address crime and the federal push to have states set up electric charging stations. And host Derek Underhill interviews Republican Albuquerque City Councilor Dan Lewis who talks about proposed tax cuts, repealing emergency powers, the plastic bag ban, DOJ's consent decree and COVID vaccines.
