

It's the 200th episode! 🎧

Steve and Derek get right into the issues! From Democrats becoming more conservative before an election, the stunts they are pulling as we get closer to our redistricting trial, how the Democrat party will not let its representatives support oil and gas, to the tragedy of a young girl who was killed by an illegal immigrant and the new way traffickers are telling migrants to enter our country; They discuss the news of more New Mexico small businesses that are leaving because of crime and why chaos is important to the left. Tune in now to hear it all and more!
