

There's no shortage of news to cover in the first episode of 2024!

Democrats complain and warn about the border crisis being brought to their states; Democrats are coming after your Second Amendment AGAIN this legislative session and hear the real reason why crime will never get better under Democrats.

Also, learn how the NM House GOP is planning to reel in the Governor and her unelected board's unchecked power and whether the organization that enacted the recent gun buybacks followed the laws they advocated for. And have you heard where the donations from NM's universities are going?

Tune in to hear it all and much more!
