It is with heavy heart that RPNM learns of the passing of Rowena Baca. Rowena and her husband proudly ran her family's business, the renowned Owl Bar and Cafe located in San Antonio, New Mexico. She was a longtime supporter of the Republican Party of New Mexico and served with the Socorro Federation of Republican Women.

Rosie Tripp, a longstanding member of the Republican National Committee and the Federated Republican Women of Socorro, gave the following statement:

"I've known Rowena since I was a little girl. My husband, Don, the former speaker of the New Mexico House of Representatives, and I held Rowena and her husband Adolph in high regard. She was an astute businesswomen and dedicated Republican. She played an integral role in advising many local and state Republicans on how to champion for small business owners. I am so sorry about her passing, and I hold her family in my prayers and thoughts. This is very heartbreaking time for us."
