Rebecca Dow Files to Run for New Mexico House District 38

TRUTH OR CONSEQUENCES – Job creator and family advocate Rebecca Dow officially filed today for a place on the ballot for New Mexico House District 38, a seat where she proudly served as State Representative for three terms.

“It’s the honor of a lifetime to serve the community that raised me. Session by session, the extreme radicals of the legislature are pushing our state further away from the values and culture of the people who live in it. What New Mexicans actually want is more money in their own pocket, opportunities for their children, and for the government to get off the backs of businesses and doctors and teachers. I’m in this fight to give the power back to the people of Southern New Mexico and make sure their voices are heard loud and clear,” said Dow.

Dow will not have a primary opponent. She will face Tara Jaramillo in the general election on November 5, 2024.
